

HealthFlash Announces Name Change to Compliance 360, Inc.

Atlanta – December 3 2003 – HealthFlash, the leader in enterprise compliance management applications, announced today that it has changed its name to Compliance 360, Inc.

The name change reflects the fact that Compliance 360 assists all regulated industries in managing their corporate compliance activities. While the company has built world class solutions for healthcare and will continue to service the highly regulated industry of healthcare, Compliance 360 has successfully developed compliance solutions in other industries. For example, current customers use Compliance 360 to address the compliance problems of Sarbanes-Oxley, HIPAA, quality programs, human resource law, 401K administration, and other state and federal regulations.

Steve McGraw, CEO and President, commented “We have built a robust software platform to handle any type of corporate compliance process. The cost of compliance with Federal regulations alone is estimated to be $540 billion per year, and our customers are seeking innovative ways to reduce their cost of compliance. We are very confident in our ability to drive down the cost and reduce the risk of compliance in regulated industries.”

About Compliance 360

Compliance 360, Inc., based in Atlanta, Georgia, provides an enterprise compliance management application for regulated industries. The application assists organizations in managing their corporate governance and compliance processes. Compliance 360 provides a full set of tools to reduce the cost associated with compliance and governance through a single enterprise-wide solution. Compliance 360 is used by over 200 facilities in North America. To learn more please visit www.compliance360.com

For additional information, please contact:

Debbie Luyk

678-992-0262

Debbie.luyk@compliance360.com